

Strengthening of veterinary surveillance and animal traceability system

Country: Latvia

Project duration: 2006-2007

Project management and financial administration. Assurance of food safety through strengthening of veterinary surveillance and animal traceability system; Increase the competences of the Food and Veterinary Service in Riga to ensure implementation of uniform procedures and efficient system for control of animals kept for farming purposes; to develop electronic animal register documentation flow system and archive including crosscheck procedures on slaughterhouses and corpse collecting organizations.

